25X1 5. [] Talked to Ben Mandel, of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, about the case of [] 25X1 an applicant for a position with the Agency. Mandel is aware of the fact that []'s father is a former Communist Party member and that his aunt and uncle are still active party members. I advised Mandel that our people had taken another look at [] but we had a number of qualified applicants for the position for which he was being considered and in view of his background we would be unable to give his application further consideration. I mentioned the fact that the Agency was actually trying to cut down on the number of its personnel and was doing little hiring. Mandel made no comment on this information but appeared to accept our decision.

25X1 6. [] Left with Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the exchange of correspondence between Mr. Rex Adams and Mr. Helms concerning Adams' request for glossy prints of certain pages of the testimony before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and also left copies of the prints in the event the Subcommittee wished to make them available to Adams.

25X1 7. [] Left with Robert Smart three copies of the information sheets on General Carter and offered to supply additional copies if he desired them.

25X1 8. [] Delivered to Bill Barden, Senate Armed Services Committee, 25 copies of General Marshall S. Carter's biography, for use by the Committee.

25X1 9. [] Captain Stevens telephoned to alert us to a query they had received from Representative Gerald R. Ford, Jr.
Stevens is the Aide to General Lemnitzer who has accompanied McNamara and Lemnitzer to the special briefings of various congressional committees on the RS-70 and OXCART. Apparently Mr. Ford wanted advice on what he could say publicly to give some reassurances. Since this conversation was by telephone, it was by no means completely clear what Ford wished to say. In any event, Ford had been advised that DOD could not give him any ok on a statement since this was a matter for CIA.
